

UNCLE SAM WARNED UNRIPE FRUIT NOW IS BEING SHIPPED

Department of Agriculture
Prepares to Seize Consignments From Florida.

Telegraphic complaints that unripe fruit is being shipped from Florida, were received today from fruit growers in that State by the Department of Agriculture.

Armed with this advance information, the department, through the Bureau of Chemistry, is preparing to seize any shipment that may be artificially colored in interstate shipment, or which may be sent to distributing centers and there artificially colored to resemble ripe fruit before it is shipped to other points. The Washington markets will be closely watched.

As published in The Times yesterday, it was rumored that some of the Florida growers were seeking to evade the law affecting the "sweating" of green fruit. The telegram received by the Department of Agriculture today confirms the report and has served to put the pure food inspectors on guard.

Under the national pure food law the department is powerless to act unless a "treated" shipment of fruit is caught in interstate traffic. The pure food inspectors then are privileged to seize it. It was said at the department today that all shipments of citrus fruits will be closely watched, and the inspectors will pay strict attention to shipments arriving in Washington.

Previous experience has taught the Bureau of Chemistry that much of the coloring is done in New York, and that the green fruit is repacked in that city and consigned to other points as ripened fruit, a process entirely contrary to the spirit of the pure food law.

The State of Florida has a law of its own to prevent the shipment of unripe fruit, and the State officials and the honestly inclined growers have asked the aid of the Federal Government also.

If Nose Stays on He Has Bright Future

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 9.—If the twenty stitches which hold his nose to his face do their work well, Charles Delaney, twenty-four years old, will be able to go through the rest of his life with the principal feature of his face in fairly good shape. Otherwise, he will have to go noseless.

Delaney was driving an automobile truck which got away from him and slipped down an embankment, partly on top of him. When he was disentangled from the wreck Delaney's nose was hanging by a single thread of tissue. Surgeons of the Franklin Hospital sewed it into place and say he will come out all right. Nothing unforeseen happens.

Seventeen Killed After Train Hold-up

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 10.—Fifteen passengers and two trainmen were killed in a wreck of the Inter-Oceanic railroad near Acochapan, as a result of the refusal of bandits to allow the flagging of an oncoming freight train after they had held up and robbed a passenger train. The bandits escaped.

CONVENTION ENDS WITH GAY EVENT

Kommers at Willard Brings Successful Gathering of German-American Alliance to Close—Delegates Leave City for Their Homes.

It was admitted today that the Kommers at the New Willard last night was a fitting close to the enjoyable and thoroughly successful convention of the National German-American Alliance. Most of the delegates have left Washington.

The "Gross Kreuz," bejeweled emblem of a German secret order that has been in existence for 1,500 years, proved a veritable Aladdin's lamp in bringing back study days, and the gift of oratory at the Kommers. The magic badge caused Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of the Chemistry Bureau, to go back nineteen years, into his university days in Germany. He said the German was rusted with age, but the old school boys, who were made young again for the night, and their wives were well pleased with both Dr. Wiley and his German. They greeted him with that song of warmest affection, "Du, du liegst mir im Herzen," and cheered him to the echo.

University Life. The gathering was a bit of German university life transplanted into the large banquet hall of an American hotel. Some of the men counted back a half century to the days when they gave their student salute of applause, their "hoch," and their "Salamander" in chorus. It was not necessary to tell them how many times to clasp their hands, rub and blink their glasses. Hallem Berlin, Goettingen, Leipzig, Munich, Heidelberg, Bonn, and Breslau, and other universities had sons among the men who entered heart and soul into the spirit of the Kommers.

The Kommersleiter was George W. Spier, and many of the delegates remembered him as the man who, twenty years ago, presided over a frolic that awakened a national convention of the Turnverein to Washington. Mr. Spier, chairman, Martin Wiegand, of the general entertainment committee, and Alvin H. Mosener, head of the Kommers committee, came in for an equal share of praise and thanks. The magic "Gross Kreuz" was first

Face Peeling Easy— Blonde or Brunette

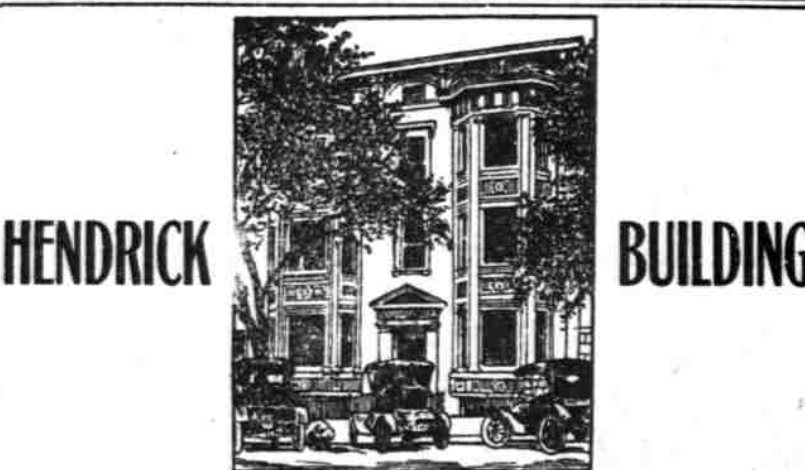

"The blonde's complexion fades early, because her skin is extraordinarily thin and fine," says Mme. Lina Cavalieri, perhaps the most famous living beauty. "The brunettes, as a rule, is the reverse. The skin is thicker and has a tendency to oily appearance. For either the faded blonde's skin or the brunettes' oily or sallow complexion, the best remedy is ordinary mercurized wax. Used daily, this will give one an entirely new complexion within about a week's time. The wax gradually absorbs the worn-out surface skin, with all its defects, a little each day, without affecting the delicate under-skin in the least. The latter will have the exquisitely beautiful glow of youth—indeed, one may readily lose ten or fifteen years from her age, so far as appearance goes, by a course of this simple treatment. Mercurized wax, procurable at any drug store, is applied like cold cream.

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD TYPEWRITIST CAUSE OF SERIOUS CHARGE

Aunt Alleges Incurability,
Naming Prominent Men in Complaint.

Declaring her sixteen-year-old niece, Miss Lillian Schuck, a pretty young stenographer, had been brought to her home in an automobile and laid on her doorstep to recover from the effects of drugs, Mrs. Ida Palmer, of 621 Newton street northwest, today filed charges of incurability against the girl.

Further alleging that the girl had been mistreated by a number of prominent men, Mrs. Palmer declared that when the girl takes place late this afternoon behind closed doors at the Juvenile Court she will give the names of these men and will ask that action be taken against them.

The girl has been in the House of Detention since last Wednesday, when she was arrested by Detective Mason Howes, on complaint of the man who said she had stolen his watch while the pair were "joy riding." Detective Howes declined to give the name of the man on whose charge he made the arrest.

The charge of incurability against the girl was withdrawn by the man, and the charge of incurability substituted by her aunt.

Mrs. Palmer said that on Friday night, since her niece has been in the House of Detention, a party of men came to her house in an automobile, demanding to be let in at 11 o'clock at night, and when this demand was refused, they kicked the door, breaking two of its panes.

Her husband, A. S. Palmer, is employed as a night watchman at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, and was not at home at the time.

Mrs. Helen F. Bierley Is Taken by Death

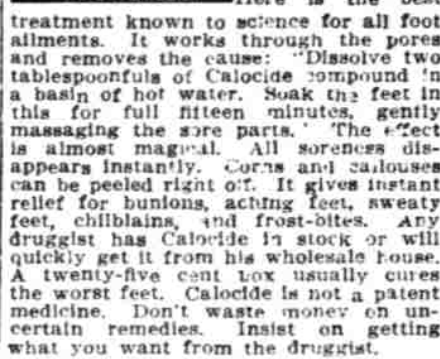

Mrs. Helen F. Bierley, for a quarter of a century a resident of Washington, where she had been a well-known member of the Woman's Relief Corps, died at Georgetown University Hospital yesterday, following an operation Sunday afternoon.

Her husband, William H. Bierley, a veteran of the civil war, is an employee at the Government Printing Office. Mrs. Bierley, who was in her seventy-third year, had been in poor health a year. She was a member of the Mowbray family, an old and well-known one in Maryland, and was a charter member of the Ninth Street Christian Church. The pastor of the church, the Rev. George A. Miller, will officiate at the funeral ceremonies, which will be held at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. B. W. Thompson, 67 Bryant street northwest, tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Funeralbearers will be chosen from the George H. Thomas Post, of the G. A. R., and interment will be in Glenwood Cemetery.

Lillian Russell's Warning Sore Feet: Bad Health

Lillian Russell is a physical marvel. Now in mature years, but having preserved all the fresh beauty of youth, in the Chicago Tribune she says: "Care of the feet (the hardest worked members of the body) is absolutely essential to health. Constant irritation from sore feet often causes serious nervous disorders, and nothing brings wrinkles to the face more certainly. Here is the best treatment known to science for all foot ailments. It works through the pores and removes the cause. Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in a basin of hot water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. The effect is almost magical. All sores disappear instantly. Corns and calluses can be peeled right off. It gives instant relief for bunions, aching feet, sweaty feet, chilblains, and frost-bites. Any druggist has Calocide in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent box usually cures the worst feet. Calocide is not a patent medicine. Don't waste money on uncertain remedies. Insist on getting what you want from the druggist.
